The Commission on its own motion hereby adds the following language to Order No. 83-883 issued on December 29, 1983, in this docket: The Commission in Order No. 83-883, dated 12-29-83 granted only inter-lata authority to AT&T Communications of the Southern States, Inc. However, in order to provide complete statewide WATS within the limitations of this certificate, it will be necessary that AT&T Communications of the Southern States, Inc. and Southern Bell, on an interim basis, offer jointly, one service which will result in a statewide WATS service. This will insure that customers will be able to have the same service at the same rates as that customer enjoyed prior to divestiture. Both companies shall file for appropriate waivers to carry out
